THANAGES, &c.

Rev. GEORGE SUTHERLAND, Portsoy, read a paper on Thanages, describing their origin and status and land tenure during the existence of these personages.

There were also papers from Mr Wm. Wilson, jun., Terpersie, Alford, on 'The Common or Green-billed Gull (larus canus), extending its range to and nesting on the Coreen and other inland hills;' Mr Wm. Morrison, M.A., Dingwall Academy, on 'The Lydian Stone of Lewis and Skye;' Dr Shearer, Huntly, on 'Physical Changes in Scotland in historic times;', and from Mr Thos. Wallace, Inverness, on 'Archæological Notes on Kintail.'

On the motion of the Chairman, the gentlemen who contributed papers were very cordially thanked.
