OFFICE-BEARERS.

On the motion of Mr Hossack, a vote of thanks was heartily passed to Dr Cramond for the able way in which he had discharged the duties of the chair during a year of more than ordinary importance on account of the meetings of the Northern Literary and Scientific Societies being held in Banff.

Dr Cramond acknowledged the vote, and proposed as his successor in the chair Mr J. A. Harvie Brown, F.R.S.E., Dunipace, Stirlingshire, which was carried by acclamation.

The other office-bearers were elected as follows:—Vice-Presidents—Rev. Dr Milne, Aberdeen; Bishop Chisholm, Aberdeen; Rev. George Sutherland, Portsoy; Dr Ramsay, Banff; Dr Barclay, Banff; Mr Runcieman, Auchmill; Sheriff Grant, Inverness; Mr A. W. Farquhar, Bracoden; Rev. William Anderson, Bridge of Allan; Mr William Forbes, Macduff; Rev. Alex. Bremner, Fyvie; Mr Garden M. Hossack, Banff; and Mr William Cramond, LL.D., Cullen; Treasurer, Mr James Grant, LL.B.; Secretary, Mr John Yeats, M.A.; Assistant Secretary, Mr Wm. Simpson; Members of Council—Provost Smith, and Messrs Alex. Greig, John Garden, J. T. Gordon, and R. Hardie; Local Secretaries—Rev. George Sutherland, Portsoy; Rev. Alex. Bremner, Fyvie; Mr John Macdonald, Buockie; Dr Cramond, Cullen; Mr John Runcieman, Auchmill; and Mr A. W. Farquhar, Bracoden; Representatives to the Northern Association of Literary and Scientific Societies—Mr Alexander Greig and Dr Cramond.

A vote of thanks to Dr Cramond for presiding and for his valuable papers brought the meeting to a close.
